Hey there, Neighbor!

Over the last few months we've been furthering our Field Organizing initiatives, and building up our base with folks just like you.

We're excited to share the following updates with you all, and hope this gets you excited for what will be a great year for The Redress Movement.

Feb 28th - SAVE THE DATE!

On Wednesday, February 28th at 2pm EST, we will be hosting our next installment of our webinar series with Lessons From The Field: Environmental Impacts of Segregation. This conversation will be focused on the links between segregation and experiencing the impacts climate change.

We'll have more details for you as we get closer and will be sending an RSVP form in the coming weeks, but be sure to mark the date down on your calendar!

Updates From Denver

Our Denver Organizer, Kevin Patterson, has been hard at work in Colorado fighting for protections for renting families facing unjust evictions.

"We can keep our neighbors in their homes and defend our neighborhoods by insisting that state legislators and the governor protect renting families from unjustified evictions at the end of a lease term, and ensure they can report dangerous conditions and secure repairs."
